Translation by Robert Alter

Halleluyah.

Praise God in His holy place,
praise Him in the vault of His power.

Praise Him for His mighty acts, praise Him as befits His abounding greatness.

Praise Him with the ram-horn's blast, praise Him with lute and the lyre.

Praise Him with timbrel and dance, praise Him with strings and flute.

Praise Him with sounding cymbals, praise Him with crashing cymbals.

Let all that has breath praise Yah.
Halleluyah.

A Modern Rendition by Rabbi Steven Moskowitz

Praise God

Praise God in the sanctuary and
In the vastness of nature

Praise God for goodness and compassion
For blessings and wonders

Praise God with piano and song
With guitar and cello

With sax and drums

With clarinet and violin

Praise God with an orchestra of sounds
And a symphony of music

Let every soul praise God

Let every breath sing praises to the Lord.
